Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Working women constitute 47 million of the nation's work force, women have entered all occupations and industries, and are constantly striving to serve their communities, their states and their nation in civic and cultural programs, and have made invaluable contributions to the American economy and worklife; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota's working women have contributed to the economic development of South Dakota and to the financial security of family units; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota Business and Professional Women, Inc., is an organization which promotes the economic self-sufficiency of the women of this state, through the development of personal and professional skills; and,

WHEREAS, BPW/USA sets aside the week of October 19-25 as National Business Women's Week in celebration and observance of the role of working women in the economy; and,

WHEREAS, All of us take pride in the leadership exhibited by working women in their many fields of endeavor and a time is needed to reconfirm and honor our commitment to the role of working women in South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 19-25, 1986, as

BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK

In South Dakota, and I urge community and state agencies, volunteer and professional organizations, and private industries to recognize the achievements of business and professional women and their contributions to the economic, civic, and cultural progress of our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Six

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE